PROFILE OF

Mr. ROHIT SINGHAL

MD & CEO, Masin Projects, Pvt.Ltd

Rohit Singhal is the Managing Director of Masin Projects Private Ltd. Mr. Singhal has over 21 years of international consulting experience involving construction contract disputes, analysis and resolution, arbitration / litigation support and expert testimony, project management, engineering construction management, cost and schedule control, and process engineering. As an internationally recognized expert in the analysis and resolution of complex construction disputes for over 21 years, Mr. Singhal has served as the lead expert on numerous projects having claims ranging in size from US$ 100,000 to over US$ 200 million. His project experience includes refineries, petrochemical and chemical plants, onshore oil & gas facilities, power plants, infrastructure, roads, commercial and industrial buildings. He has testified in court, as well as in international arbitrations (ICC, LCIA, SIAC). Mr. Singhal has presented and published numerous articles on the subjects of claims analysis, entitlement issues, CPM schedule and damages analyses, cumulative impact claims, and claims prevention.

Before joining Masin, Mr. Singhal was Chief Executive Officer for a major engineering, procurement, and construction contractor. In this role, he had responsibility for overall management and maintaining profit & loss of the company with its client, Shell, in the Middle East. He was also Corporate Functional Head of pipeline projects in Petroleum Development Oman.

Mr. ANIRUDH KRISHNAN

Managing Partner, AK Law Chambers,

Anirudh Krishnan is the founder partner of AK Law Chambers. Being a law graduate from NALSAR, Hyderabad, and completed the BCL course from Oxford University, Anirudh is also a qualified Solicitor of England and Wales. He handles commercial and public law litigation, arbitration and corporate advisory work of the firm.

His expertise in the field of domestic and international arbitration emerges from the authoritative two-volume book titled "Justice R.S. Bachawat's Law of Arbitration and Conciliation" published by LexisNexis Butterworths Wadhwa Nagpur, of which he is the Chief-Editor and has contributed chapters in the international publications- "Handbook on Third-Party Funding in International Arbitration" and "CPR India Supplement". In addition to the above, Anirudh has also authored a book titled "The Law of Reservation and Anti-discrimination" published by the same publisher. Apart from these, he has published numerous articles on varied areas of law in several journals. He writes a regular column for a popular legal news platform - Bar & Bench (www.barandbench.com). He has delivered guest lectures in many of the national law schools in India and has presented papers at numerous national and international conferences including a seminar conducted by 39 Essex Street Chambers, London. He was also invited to deliver talks to the international arbitration teams of Clifford Chance LLP and Herbert Smith, LLP, London.

Anirudh was selected as an Inter Pacific Bar Association (IPBA) scholar in the year 2012 and is currently the Vice Chair of the Legal Development and Training Committee of the IPBA. He was appointed as an expert on Indian Law for an ICC arbitration in London and was cross-examined on his expert witness statement.

He is also a member of the Madras High Court Arbitration Committee, the drafting committee for the Mumbai Court of International Arbitration (MCIA), Steering Committees of the Indi-Italian Chamber of Commerce and the Young-MCIA.
