

COMPANY PROFILE:

We, Masin, are Claim Management Consultants and Arbitration Expert's to the Engineering and Construction industry. We have our offices in India, UAE, Kuwait, Saudi Arabia, Qatar, Oman and Singapore catering to some of the leading contracting/owner companies operating in Middle East, India and South East Asia regions. We are the biggest and most experienced firm in India and having to our credit some of the highest profile construction disputes. Please visit to our website www.masinproject.com for more details.

Designation: Consultant – Contracts & Claim

Education: Should be engineering graduate from a reputed university with specialization in Contract Management or Construction Law

- The candidate should have very strong writing, communication and presentation skills.
- Should have sound analytical thinking ability and having flair for studying and comprehending technical/ contract documents,
- Should be a highly motivated professional.

Job description: The profile requires working as a Consultant in contract and claim management, delay analysis and dispute resolution/ arbitration related assignments in infrastructure, engineering and construction projects in Oman & MENA region. The profile will require reviewing of the contract documents/ claim papers, analysing the merit of the cases, performing delay and quantum analysis, preparing expert reports on delay, quantum and technical matters and supporting our clients in large scale disputes in negotiation/ arbitrations and courts.

The work will require travelling within India and Middle East regions.

Maximum age- 35 years

Experience: -

1. Minimum 5 years' industry experience in contract or claim/dispute management discipline for engineering, contracting, project management or equivalent type of consulting/contracting business for infrastructure industry.
2. Should be strong in studying documents, comprehending/ understanding the issues, presentation and report writing.
3. Should have understanding of contractual/legal aspects associated with typical infrastructure projects. A good exposure to project planning software's would be preferable.
4. Should have good exposure of construction claim / analysis i.e. extension of time, prolongation costs, variations, disruption claims etc.
5. Experience of claim consulting in infrastructure domain or exposure to construction arbitration process would be an added advantage.
6. Candidate should have past experience in Middle East preferably and having the driving licence from one of the Middle East Countries.

Seniority Level

Mid-level

Employment Type

Full-time

Location

Muscat, Sultanate of Oman